Vermont's Northeast Kingdom offers some of the finest rural cycling and quiet water paddling in the state. On the water, gentle currents, protected bays, and an abundance of wildlife keep one curious about what awaits around the next bend. On the land, back roads and bicycle paths take you along the scenic shores of Lake Memphramagog up to the Canadian border and quaint Quebecois villages. To book this package, contact the Little Gnesta at (802) 334-3438.

Package includes:

- Two nights of lodging at the Little Gnesta, a Swedish-Inspired Bed & Breakfast, located on a quiet side street in downtown Newport. Within walking distance to Lake Memphramagog and its paddler-friendly south bay, as well as unique local restaurants, an outdoor store, a natural food store, and a historic library.
- A half day of paddling and related outfitting and shuttling with Clyde River Recreation (all boating equipment included) on the Clyde River or Lake Memphramagog's South Bay.
- A full day bicycle rentals from the Great Outdoors of Newport
- A meal at Montgomery's Cafe, featuring fresh, local and organic soups, sandwiches, and salad bar.
- Northern Forest Canoe Trail and Northeast Kingdom paddling and cycling maps.
