Venture northwards to the quaint farming village of Milan, NH for an unforgettable Grand Adventure!

You will wake up to views of gardens, orchards and surrounding mountains at the pet friendly and well-kept Mahoosuc Inn. After a hearty breakfast, your seasoned guide from Raft NH/ Muddy Paw Sled Dog Kennel will arrive to shuttle you to the Androscoggin River, New Hampshire's most reliable whitewater. On the river, your guide will teach you basic paddling skills and then take you on a raucous day of whitewater rafting and swimming. You'll pass moose, bear, osprey and eagle habitat as you travel downstream.

After a tasty shoreline lunch, your adventure will continue along nearby forest trails on a dog sled rig ride! Your rafting guides will trade in their paddles and teach you about the basic techniques, commands, and gear for handling a sled-dog team. You'll get to help harness and even drive the team (at musher discretion for dog and guest safety).

At the end of the day, your guides will return you to the Mahoosuc Inn for a delicious dinner, sunset over the mountains and a relaxing soak in the hot tub.

Interested in a ducky (inflatable kayak) trip? Just inquire when you make your reservation. Any of Raft NH's trips can be combined with the Mahoosuc Inn lodging package and the Rolling Dogsledding to make this trip the perfect fit for your family.

Reviews of the Mahoosuc Inn

"The inn provides stables for boarding horses and miles and miles of trails for riding. Visit the farm behind the inn and say hello to Captain, a stunning black Percheron.... The setting and scenery at the inn and barn are gorgeous. So scenic, that the inn provides a wedding package for a unique country wedding." New Hampshire To Do March 2011
