Vermont's Northeast Kingdom offers some of the finest off-road cycling and quiet-water paddling in the state. East Burke is home to the internationally acclaimed Kingdom Trails, a series of off-road walking and cycling trails traversing nearby hills, meadows, and river valleys. A half hour drive to the north, the Clyde River meanders through a quiet, pastoral valley. The region's quaint, personable inns, friendly restaurants, and well-stocked country stores provide all the services paddlers and cyclists need in a peaceful, village environment. For more descriptive information on this vacation, refer to the Northern Forest Canoe Trail's "Pedal and Paddle" visitor itinerary.

All packages include:

- A half day of paddling and related outfitting and shuttling with Clyde River Recreation (all boating equipment included). Optional guiding service available through Siskin Ecological Adventures.
- Day passes providing access to the Kingdom Trails, a 110-mile network of winding singletrack, ancient cart paths, broad fire roads, and scenic country roads (Reserve bicycles ahead of time from East Burke Sports)
- Coupons good for free treats and discounts at area country stores
- A picnic lunch
- Northern Forest Canoe Trail and Kingdom Trails maps

Package Option 1: Wildflower Inn

The family friendly Wildflower Inn, situated on a hillside just out of town, is also home to Juniper's Restaurant and breathtaking, pastoral views. This package also includes two breakfasts, a boxed lunch, and dinner at Juniper's Restaurant. Rates start at $399 for two people. To book this package, visit <http://www.wildflowerinn.com> or call (800) 627-8310.

Package Option 2: The Village Inn at East Burke

The Village Inn of East Burke, owned and operated by George & Lorraine Willy, is a cozy and affordable B&B in the heart of East Burke Village. Amenities include a large vegetable garden for you to pick from if you are eating in, guest kitchen, brook side picnic area and fire pit, and a relaxing outdoor jacuzzi. Massage therapy and guide services are also available. This package also includes full breakfasts in the morning, a picnic lunch and a $25.00 voucher to Willy's Restaurant next door.
